MIT Academic Teaching Initiative
SAT II Subject Program - Fall 2019

In 1985, a student group at MIT, Educational Studies Program (ESP), dreamt of providing an affordable alternative to SAT prep programs offered by professional vendors, and thus SATPrep was born. Although ESP has decided to discontinue their program in 2011, MIT Academic Teaching Initiative started a program similar to ESP’s SATPrep, in which SAT Reasoning and Subject preparation classes are offered at low cost to high school students in the Boston area.

   Emails will be sent out on or before Monday, September 9.

3) Complete in-person registration on Sunday, September 22

   Failure to complete any of these steps may result in forfeiting your place in the program.

Refund Policy
Submitting the Online Pre-Registration Form for the SAT Preparation Program implies you understand that the $125 program fee is non-refundable once submitted, except in significant extenuating circumstances that will prevent the registered student from participating in the program. All requests for refund should be submitted in writing to ati-satprep@mit.edu, and subject to the approval of the SAT Preparation Program Directors. Refund requests must be submitted within 24 hours after the end of the first class to be considered. For students’ convenience, the following sample reasons are not valid reasons for refunds.

1) Program schedule did not work out.
   Students are expected to peruse the program schedule included. By submitting the Pre-Registration, students are acknowledging all the dates for the program. Students will not sign up for the program if there are currently known conflicting events that will prevent the student from attending all sessions of the program. At the SAT Preparation Program Directors discretion, the Directors may approve refunds for significant personal reasons that will affect the student participation which occurs after Registration.

2) Program is too easy/too difficult.
   The SAT Preparation Program is designed to prepare students from a wide range of abilities. We are unable to honor student refunds for reasons such as material difficulty after the start of the program.

3) Program is not to the student’s liking.
   We are unable to honor student refunds for personal reasons regarding the instruction of the program, unless significant error and lapse in performance had been demonstrated in our teachers.
